Wedded at Courthouse

Judge Howell yesterday morning joined in bonds of holy matrimony Clarence C. Brown and Miss Lily May Jones, both of Corona, N. M. They were attended by Miss Brown and Mr. Jones, sister and brother of the bride and groom. Both young people are well known in the vicinity of Corona and have many friends who wish them well. They returned to the Crown City yesterday where they will be at home to their many friends.

Ruby Goodin Dies

Monte Goodin left Sunday night for Roswell in response to a message that his sister, Ruby, was very ill with diphtheria. Yesterday morning a message was received from the parents stating that Ruby had died early yesterday morning. The Goodin family has many friends here who will sympathize with them in their sorrow. Ruby was an especially bright girl, and although entering her teens in age, we still think of her as the "little" girl we knew half a dozen years ago. The News joins the numerous friends in extending sympathy to the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus McGillivray and two babies came in yesterday morning from their ranch home, in the Pedernal Hills, 20 miles east of town. They will not return until after election.

Was Afraid to go home in the Dark

Last December one of the witnesses in a suit for divorce in the district court here, after testifying took the train for his home near Willard. Arriving at Willard he slipped into the depot, where he remained until two citizens of Willard secured a team and their guns and accompanied him home. That witness is today the candidate for sheriff on the Republican ticket. Won't he be a fine sheriff, if elected? Afraid to go home in the dark! Is this the kind of a peace officer you want, Mr. Voter? If not, vote for Julius Meyer, the man who is not afraid of any man, because he treats every man right.

Vote for the Blue Ballot and Freedom.

County Commissioners

The office of county commissioner is one of the most important among the county offices, as this office has the letting of all contracts and the auditing and paying of all bills for the county. Businessmen, who can and do rely on their business sense, should be chosen to fill this office. And, in the transaction of the people's business, men who know the people should be chosen. A figure head, who must postpone action on important matters until the "boss" is consulted, is not a fit person to fill the position. Lorenzo Zamora, who is candidate for the commissionership from the first district is a man of the people, who understands the people, a businessman who has conducted his private business on business principles and who has numerous friends not only in his home precinct but in the whole county. Juan Cruz Sanchez, the candidate from the second district is a young man of sterling character, whose business ability is unquestioned. Both gentlemen speak both English and Spanish, and are not ruled by any boss. When business comes before them, it will be settled then and there, and not lie on the table for further consideration and never taken up again. A glance at the records of the commissioners shows that much important business has been treated in this manner during the past, and merely allowed to die a natural death while waiting to be taken up again. A change in the personnel of the board is imperative, if the business of the county is to be conducted as it should be.

County Clerk and Recorder

J. J. White, candidate for the office of county clerk has been a resident of Torrance county for several years and of Valencia county previous to coming here. He was agent for the A. T. & S. F. at Los Lunas for two years when he was transferred to Mountainair, which position he also held for two years. He resigned this position to go into the wood and post business at Mountainair. During the two years last past he has been extensively engaged in farming, controlling over a thousand acres in beans alone. Naturally during these latter years he has had extensive dealings with the native people, and has many friends among them. By employing large numbers of men, he has done much toward promoting and developing the Estancia Valley.

That he is capable of conducting the office to which he aspires in a business-like and efficient manner is conceded by all. He has a strong support from his own precinct, and also among the mountain precincts, where the people know him best, his dealings with the natives having been straightforward and honest thus forming lasting friendships.

For School Superintendent

The Democratic candidate for superintendent of schools of Torrance county is one of the county's successful teachers, having been employed at Duran the past two years as principal. Previous to filling that position he taught in the western part of the county. Before coming to the Valley in 1907, he taught for twelve years in Missouri, and is well acquainted with the needs of the schools. As superintendent of the county schools, the advancement of the schools and pupils would continue to advance in a much greater degree. As an experienced and up-to-date school man, Ludwick claims your vote on Tuesday, November 7.

Probate Judge

Jose de Jesus Romero, candidate for Probate Judge, is one of the leaders among the native people of the county, and has been for some time. His honesty and upright dealings have won the hearts not only of his own people, but all with whom he has had business. Away back in 1889 he was elected by a good majority to the office of county commissioner of the old county of Valencia, and so well did he serve his people that he was re-elected in 1891. On account of personal business demanding his time, he resigned before the expiration of his second term. Mr. Romero is a safe man to have in charge of the office of judge of probate, and will look carefully after the business of the office. His knowledge of men and affairs will stand him well in the administration of estates, and that he will carefully guard the interests of the widow and orphan is assured.

State Representative

A. J. Green, nominee for representative from Torrance county on the Democratic ticket, has been a resident of the county for the past five years or more. He owns considerable property in the county and is a heavy taxpayer. If elected he will serve the people well in the first state legislature, and do his part toward securing needed legislation. His opponent is not a resident of the county, having lived in Washington the past six years, and is not a taxpayer here, his name failing to appear on the tax rolls. And unlike his opponent, Mr. Green owns the furniture in his home and is not living in a rented house and using rented furniture.

Mr. Green has been for Estancia and the Estancia Valley, and everything he can do to advance and develop the town and valley he gladly and willingly does. Vote for a resident of your county and not a carpetbagger sent in to represent Andrews in the legislature.

County Assessor

The office of the county assessor is in better shape than it has ever been before. During the past three years the assessment of the county has been much larger than previous, the result of the office being on a business basis and conducted by a business man. The work of the assessor strikes the pocketbook of every taxpayer, which means practically every voter in the county. When all are assessed equitably, the burden is not severe on anyone, but when favoritism is shown, it falls heavily on the small farmer and small property owner. D. C. Howell, or Dixie, as everybody calls him, has done the work with exceeding great care. The board of county commissioners has said of his work, that "the books are the best they have ever seen." His political opponents have been compelled to give him credit for having his records in the best possible shape. Do not these comments urge his re-election?

There is no complaint about double taxation, a matter of which we heard so much under Mr. Howell's predecessor. The extensions on the books are what they should be and not multiplied as they were during one year in time past. There has been no "forced balance" as was the case before Mr. Howell took charge of the office. Mr. Howell has given the work his personal attention, and has had competent help to assist him. His work shows competency throughout. With as competent officials in all the county offices as Dixie Howell has been in the assessor's office, the taxes would soon be reduced a large per cent. Vote for Dixie and you will not regret it.

Sheriff Meyer

Julius Meyer, candidate of the Progressive Republicans of Torrance county for re-election, on the Democratic ticket is one of the best known men of the county. His record as sheriff for the past three years and as a member of the Mounted Police of the territory for several years previous to taking the office of sheriff, commends him to the voters of the county, regardless of politics, for their hearty support. That he has made good is above question. His appointment as a member of the Mounted Police, without application on his part, shows the faith that the territorial officials had in him, and his reappointment to that position by succeeding executives, proves that their confidence was not misplaced.

Meyer knows when to keep his mouth shut in his work, as well as how to work successfully. His record in the Juan Peralta murder case is still fresh in the minds of the readers of the News. How he was called to Tajique on Thursday and on Friday night had the murderers under arrest, and the following Tuesday had the confessions and pleas of guilty. This is but one case of many where he has shown his fitness for the place. The Grey case at Lucia is another instance. But why enumerate more? Every citizen knows that lawlessness has decreased in a large per cent since Meyer has been sheriff of the county. Is not this a splendid recommendation in itself?

Meyer has never had to be escorted home after dark by armed men. He is honest and upright with every man and has no one to fear. Vote for Meyer and you are protecting your own interests.

Is Amble Going to Santa Fe?

Are you going to vote for a man for County Treasurer who has his residence in Santa Fe and will spend most of his time there or a man who is a resident of this County and intends to make his home here and have personal supervision of the office? We leave it to you Mr. Voter and trust to your good judgment.—Estancia Herald.

Mr. McGillivray has been a resident of this part of New Mexico since before the editorship of the Herald was born, and has never lived nor voted any place else in that time. Such prevarications merely show how desperate the gang is getting and how they must manufacture "campaign lies" against the candidates on the Democratic ticket. Such boomerangs will only strengthen the voters in favor of McGillivray, as the people know him better than they do the Herald.
